“MEMORIES OF MONROE COUNTY”

A JOHN B. ROGERS COMPANY PRODUCTION

Executive Producer
Jack Branczewicz

Production Director/Choreographer
Edward Horner Jr.

Associate Director
Katherine Rapp

Sound by
Thompson Sound Services

“Memories of Monroe County” is a John B. Rogers Company Production and is based on historical outline. Chronology of incidents, characters, and costumes may have been changed to meet staging requirements. Dialogue situations and characters have been created to augment historical data.

THE STORY

Episode One: “Our Story Begins”

Scene One: “Depuy is the name, Nicholas Depuy . . . Good Evening, and I’m Daniel Brodhead . . . But Pennsylvania became a state, and Monroe County was born . . . A mighty part of our United States of America.”

Scene Two: “We present the Monroe County Sesquicentennial First Lady and her Court of Honor” . . . Happy Birthday Monroe County Pennsylvania.

Episode Two: “The Contact Period and The Lenape”

Scene One: “The Redman was here for over 10,000 years . . . I am Chief Teedyuscung . . . and I am Chief Newallike.”

Scene Two: “In December of 1775 the Indians began a series of attacks on the settlers . . . 300 settlers lost their lives.”

Episode Three: “The Settlers Arrive”

Scene One: “Yes it is the Pioneering days!” . . . Way side Taverns were popular.

Scene Two: “A time for celebrating and a time for a barn raising” . . . “How do you raise a barn.”

Episode Four: “The Burning Tide”

Scene One: “It’s Friday, April 1st, 1936. The State Legislature authorizes the organization of Monroe County.”

Scene Two: “Lincoln elected John Summerfield Staples as his substitute under the draft” . . . Heroes were lost, and this was never to be forgotten.

Episode Five: “School Days”

Scene One: “Let us take a look on what has been done with education in Monroe County” . . . Clearview School was originally started as a one room school house.”

Scene Two: “Children, children, the bell has rung . . . please take your seats.”

Scene Three: “1927 ! Fire at the High School . . . Fire at 6th and Thomas !!”

Scene Four: “Play Ball”

Episode Six: “Tragedies Return - But Faith Rebuilds”

Scene One: “Such was the case in 1955, when Downpours . . . In fact the worst Flood of all time took place in Monroe County.”

Scene Two: “We are on the second floor !”

Scene Three: “Hurricane Diane” . . . The Civil Air Patrol proved to be of great value in the aftermath of the 1955 Flood.

Episode Seven: “Our Faith Begins”

Scene One: “In the Early Days” . . . All services were conducted in private homes . . . and the First Church.

Scene Two: “Let us join hands in thanks and rejoice these blessed times by singing.”

Scene Three: “We are proud of our many Churches.”

INTERMISSION

Episode Eight: “Trivia and the Iron Horse”

Scene One: “It’s time for the ABC’s of Monroe County, Pennsylvania !”

Scene Two: “The Delaware Valley Railroad began operating in August of 1901 . . . The toot of the whistle . . . Heading this way . . . Coming down the line.”

Scene Three: “Sixteen tons and what do you get.”

Episode Nine: “Bustles, Bonnets, Beards and the Fire Company”

Scene One: “Hey, What are you doing here . . . I’m your Great, Great Grandpa.”

Scene Two: “It’s the July 4th celebration of 1894 . . . The Acme Hose Company Fire Brigade.”

Scene Three: “The American Past Time . . . When is it more fun.”

Scene Four: “Foul Baaaaa!!!!”

Episode Ten: “The Locals and the Tourists”

Scene One “One Ring A Ding . . . Two Ring A Ding.”

Scene Two: “The Eighth Wonder of the World.”

Our appreciation also goes to all those who served but whose names were not listed due to printing deadlines- and if your name is misspelled, please forgive us!!

A special thanks to the husbands, wives and children who have been neglected for the last few months. It was all for a good cause. Our lives will eventually return to normal, but none of us will ever forget this great occasion. AGAIN, WE SAY THANKS!!

Hats off to all the printers and publishers who have kept their presses rolling night and day to help us get the word out on our Birthday Party.

... AND TO THE CITIZENS, BUSINESSES, CHURCHES AND ORGANIZATION IN MONROE COUNTY. THE NAMES HAVE PASSED US BY, BUT WITHOUT YOU, WE WOULD NOT BE CELEBRATING OUR 150TH BIRTHDAY!!
