The Stroudsburg Sesquicentennial

1965

Pictures @ Stories by The Pocono Record

All Rights Reserved

Compiled by James N. Adams

Eastern Monroe Public Library

Stroudsburg, Pa 18360
Sesquicentennial kickoff Monday

STROUDSBURG—Peter Wyckoff, chairman of the men’s participation committee for the Stroudsburg Sesquicentennial Celebration, announced today that there will be a community-wide kick-off meeting Monday.

All men in Stroudsburg, East Stroudsburg, and surrounding areas, who are interested in taking an active part in the celebration are invited.

The meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the ballroom of the Penn-Stroud Hotel. Dessert and coffee will be served.

“There are many activities to be planned if the celebration is to be a success,” Wyckoff said. “However, this is a fun project which everyone will enjoy.”
April 13, 1965 Interested 4-H youngsters

Bruce Price, operator of an Esso Service Station on N. Fifth St. in Stroudsburg, shows three 4-H Club members how to lubricate a car. The boys, interested in automotive maintenance, are (left to right) Gary Sargent, Stan Smith and Richard Nichols.

(Photo by Arnold)
Accepting the contribution

Rae Cornwall (center), manager of the Citizens Gas Co. in Stroudsburg, turns over a substantial contribution on behalf of his company to be used for Stroudsburg's Sesquicentennial Celebration to Stroudsburg Mayor Joseph Small (right), and Joe Kvarick, Fourth Ward councilman, both members of the Sesquicentennial committee.

(Photo by Wilson)
rocketting along
Sesqui Progress

The Pocano Record, The Stroudsburgs, Pa. — Wed, April 21, 1965

the committee members...